About Us

After June 1983 with win of prudential cup, India's youth emerged with more potential force to ushered the new thinking. 1983, was the year when the idea to put the seed of connectivity for businesses across the globe, to influence Entrepreneurs, and the legislatures to join hands with each other for the development & growth of a staunch economy, business marketers & the nation itself. Hypothetically, it was restricted to the big corporates and the top-notch delegates.

The Chamber Of Commerce with considerable speed and returns for more than three decades, with an added and remarkable concept to connect the big corporates as well as the individual businesses and huckster (sometimes having more turnover than companies) for the development of domestic as well as International trade practices to cater and resolve the issues arising out of any genre of legislations, malpractice or other consequences which obstruct the trade and commerce. We want our members to contribute with their talk, vision and ideas to make a better platform of representation to boost the business synergy. The idea was seeded with the then Chief Minister of State of West Bengal, Shri Siddhartha Shankar Ray with Shri Pawan Goenka.
